WELFARE OUTING

Church Officials Enjoy Barbecue

HAILSTONE—"Is this your first time up here?" one of the General Authorities inquired of another. "Yes, but it won't be the last, providing I get an invitation," was the reply.

The locale was the community park near Hailstone and the event under discussion was the annual welfare barbecue sponsored Friday evening by the Wasatch Stake "Official Family," headed by Pres. H. Clay Cummings and his counselors.

The social event has over the years, become somewhat of an institution attended by all of the General Authorities who can conveniently come—and thoroughly enjoyed by all in attendance.

THIS YEAR, as last the visitors from Salt Lake were led by President J. Reuben Clark Jr. and included Pres. Joseph Fielding Smith and Elders John A. Widtsoe, Harold B. Lee and Matthew Cowley, of the Council of the Twelve; Elder Clifford E. Young, Assistant to the Council of the Twelve; Elder Milton R. Hunter, of the First

Council of the Seventy and Bishop Carl W. Buehner, of the Presiding Bishopric together with their wives and partners, as well as Mrs. Bessie Richards and Mrs. Henry D. Moyle.

Also welcomed as guests were Pres. Harry T. Oscarson, of Sugar House Stake, and chairman of the Sugar House Welfare Region and Mrs. Oscarson; Pres. Casper H. Parker, Hillside Stake and vice chairman of the region and Mrs. Parker and June Sharp, coordinator of the region with Mrs. Sharp. Pres. and Mrs. Moses C. Taylor of South Summit Stake were also present to join in the pleasurable evening with their neighbors.

BANQUETERS were feted with lamb chops and steaks barbecued in a charcoal pit by past masters of the art flanked with huge bowls of salads and hash-brown potatoes topped off with "mansized" servings of ice cream and cake—home baked.

After the inner man was more than satisfied, Clyde Broadbent, master of ceremonies, took over to set the stage with sparkling repartee and stories old and new, for an interesting program largely composed of local talent. Saxophone solos, vocal solos and choruses pleased the surfeited audience. Highlight of the program were three vocal solos sung by Mrs. Joseph Fielding Smith, "In the Garden of Tomorrow," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and, as a final number, which she dedicated to all present, "I Love You Truly." THE 12 BISHOPS of the stake drew hearty applause for their rendition of an original song emphasized by the refrain, "It's Later Than You Think."

Several of the visiting General Authorities responded to the call of the master of ceremonies in jocular vein, each expressing appreciation for the invitation to the banquet and for the hospitality of Wasatch Stake welfare workers.

Wasatch Stake's permanent project consists of a modern dairy developed during the last several years, one of the largest in the Utah area, whose product is shipped to the Church-owned creamery on Welfare Square, Salt Lake City.
